

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

ONTARIO OIL STRIKE MAY BRING FARMER $1,000 A YEAR—Oil fuel on farm of Sam Lynn, (left), 77, may bring him $1,000 a year. Arthur Lynn, son with his wife and daughter, Linda Lee, who operates the farm at Hapton, Ont., for his father, did not know of the oil strike until he visited town. Friends told him. The strike came in during the night. Flow of 144 barrels a day is indicated.

Discovery of oil with this rig on the farm resulted from years of exploration in the district by the Imperial Oil Co., said to have 10,000 acres under lease.

EMPLOYEES LOSE CLOTHES IN $300,000 FIRE—Firemen on ladders battle the $300,000 fire which gutted Don Aven Market in Toronto, nearly trapping two girl office employees in smoke and flames on second floor. Fire spread so quickly they did not avoid flames before alarm was sounded by fellow worker. Fire is believed to have started in basement curing room. Loss of produce is estimated at $65,000.

HELLO!
With the best of Young Folks—
You'll talk and you'll mingle
It doesn't much matter
if you're married or single.

JUNIOR FARMERS ASSN
Of Ontario
Expanding and
ONTARIO FEDERATION OF AGRICULTURE

ONTARIO JUNIOR FARMERS OPPOSE MARGARET SALE—Peck and Clement, Vancouver. At conference in Toronto are Peggy Smith, (left), long around sign welcoming delegates to the Junior Farmers of Ontario con.—Millwright, Dorothy Brooker, New Hamburg. Meeting asked health units, France are, from top: Margaret Mitchell, Hanson; Ophelia Orr; Maple; Marg; opposed Margaret sale.

VICTORY AND DEFEAT—Old tree slump near the Prussian victory monument in Berlin's destroyed Tiergarten, was a lucky find for the Germans. It is a lucky find for the 10 children, seen.

TRAVELLING GARAGE—Routledge reports would be easy with this little truck with a built-in hoist, shown lifting car and driver into feet into the air. It was shown at a London garage.

HAD HER MILLION-DOLLAR EYES OPENED—Jane Carter, who recently married her husband, $1,000,000, came up with a new cure for movie magazine shock. Treat yourself to a vacation in Rome, she told the circulating publishers, and watch how they "magnify" the picture. The lady is calm about the whole thing. Hollywood would have been a terrible place just says she is. "Everybody is so calm and tranquil in the movie business over there," Jane says. "You just go along and shoot your scenes and nobody rushes you or yells at you or anything. I got such a wonderful rest, I gained nine pounds."

MOVIE STUDIO MAKES IMMUNIZATION FILM—Roadside in Rutherford, Cal., are included in cast in the health film, "To Save Our Children," being made by the National Film Board in the town. Dr. Fred Burke, playing the doctor in the movie, explains vaccine to Donna Van Alstine as her mother looks on. Pat Drysdale, (right), Rutherford, was chosen to portray a typical ten-year in the film.

MARGARET TRUMAN, ART SUROCK—Margaret Truman smiled back when she saw herself smiling from men with her husband, in making U.S. citizenship. She wishes to retain her title and asks permission to have her name changed to Elizabeth Princess Hesse.

WISHES TO BE U.S. "PRINCESS"—Princess Christian Hesse, the former Elizabeth Rogers of Washington, who married the former U.S. ambassador to Germany, is seeking U.S. citizenship. She wishes to retain her title and asks permission to have her name changed to Elizabeth Princess Hesse.

VETERAN GROCER BLAMES HIGH FOOD PRICES ON MAN'S GREED—Max's grocery store, 86, 78, who has been in the grocery business in Toronto, Ont., for 52 years. The enterprise is a three-generation project. Associated with Mr. Bille are his son, F. H. Bille, 27, (right), and grandson, William Bille.

GREEK PRINCE IN U.S. FOR LECTURE TOUR—Cousin of Greek King, Prince Peter, and his wife, Princess Irene, arrive at New York for a U.S. lecture tour. In Greece, Queen Frederika visited Roudas in place of King Paul, who is ill. Garrison and guerrilla have recently been hitting the Roudas.

NO MORE BRANDY-CARRYING DOGS IN ALPINE RESCUER—Famous for Alpine rescues, the monastery on St. Bernard pass in Switzerland has been forced by lack of funds to curtail drastically the activities of the Alpine hospital. All but two of their huge, life-saving dogs, like this one seen with one of the monks, have been sent down to the lowlands. Note the St. Bernard puppy at the left.

